Description: The Erie Zoo can travel to you! The Erie Traveling Zoo comes straight into your classroom, Senior/assisted living, organization, or event and enables your participants to go beyond the limits of a textbook. Also birthday parties are available for public places. The zoo can't go into people's personal homes or backyards. They will see, hear, and touch animals and artifacts while learning at the same time. Accommodations can be made for all skill levels and abilities. Please notify us ahead of time so arrangements can be made. The Traveling Zoo is in operation year round and can do programs seven days a week!

Rates: $125-300ish depending on travel time and audience size

Recommended by: Many librarians in the district
