Sharing

-Ron Davis is recovering and may possibly be returning.

-Discussion of A-Tech, 60 Hours do not roll over. So far, 60 hours has been sufficient to meet District IT needs.

- New castle signed up all students at local school for library cards, using student IDs. E-books now available to all 500 students.

-Tutor.com of marketing materials, business cards, post and info sheets.

-South Butler is joining with PBS, to produce a program about Cartoon illustrating. Zoom link will be emailed. Tuesday February 15th at 5:30.

-Greenville is helping with PaLA, this year in Harrisburg in person. Looking for presentations and presenters, can go through PALibraries.org website.

-PA state budget proposal has slight budget increase for libraries.

-FD Campbell is parenting with a local non-profit based on reclaiming old parts of houses. Building a quasi maker space on a smaller budget then 1.5 million!

-Neva is 're-inventing' the District newsletter. Please share hopes and ideas.
