Description: Tim Hartman is a native Pittsburgher and has been professionally acting, singing, writing, cartooning and storytelling since 1982. Though known primarily for his work on the stage, including nearly 300 hundred plays and musicals, and appearances on Broadway in "A Tale of Two Cities" and the Tony nominated "Finian's Rainbow," Tim's favorite job is performing his own brand of stand-up comedy storytelling. It is estimated he has performed for over 2 million children over a thirty year period. Tim is also an award winning political cartoonist and illustrator.

Tim Hartman performs for children and adults of all walks of life. Frequently he books elementary school assembly programs, but he has performed at camps, libraries, museums, and retirement homes. Though his primary work comes from performing in front of large groups in auditoriums, gyms, and church sanctuaries, he also provides smaller workshops for students and professional development.

Tim performs every year at the Storytelling Festival run by Ellwood City's Nancy. He was the performer at our 2018 Summer Quest District Meeting.

Rates: "Because Tim services so many different types of organizations with different needs and groups of different sizes, his rates can vary widely to meet the circumstance. If you'd like to book Tim, he is available directly via phone and email. He would love to know your needs so he can provide the perfect program for you at a reasonable price."

$250ish
